

FROM CLASSICS TO JAZZ

April 6, 2013, Notre Dame of Maryland University LeClerc Hall
4701 North Charles Street Baltimore, Maryland 21210

A silent auction at 6:30 precedes a recital at 7:00 pm

The American Liszt Society Baltimore-Washington Chapter is honored to present a Benefit Gala during the weeklong Celebration of the Inauguration of Notre Dame of Maryland University's Twelfth President, Dr. James Conneely.

Funds raised will benefit the
2013 Liszt-Garrison Festival and International Piano Competition

Suggested contribution: $20.00

For ticket details please visit our website at www.lisztgarrisoncompetition.org

The Benefit Gala is sponsored by Music at Notre Dame, Ernest Ragogini, director, with the collaboration of Nancy Roldán, director of the Liszt-Garrison Festival and International Piano Competition, and president of ALSBWC.

FROM CLASSICS TO JAZZ features some of Baltimore's most admired musicians, performing a program of exciting and beloved compositions from all eras and for all ages. The program features Solo and Chamber Music by Liszt, Debussy, Dukas, Pablo de Sarasate, Cole Porter, and Piazzolla, culminating with a Jazz improvisation on Waller's "Ain't misbehavin'"

The distinguished artists performing FROM CLASSICS TO JAZZ have been acclaimed all over the world, recognized by critics and public for the "beauty of their sound" ... "bravura playing" ... "excellence" ... "sophistication" ... and for their ability to reach into the heart of the audience.

We hope to welcome every one of you to this unforgettable evening

*****

2013 Liszt-Garrison Festival and International Piano Competition
October 23-26
Notre Dame of Maryland University
&
The Embassy of Hungary