

SERENATA siciliana

You are invited to a
FUNDRAISING MUSICAL DINNER

offered by
The American Liszt Society
Baltimore-Washington Chapter

in celebration of Thomas Mastroianni's life

at the home of Helen and Stanislaw Tarchalski overlooking the Severn River

1802 River Watch Lane
Annapolis, MD 21401

Sunday
November 16, 2014
3:30 PM

View from Tarchalski home

Welcome to our first fundraiser for the 2015 Liszt-Garrison Festival and International Competition

$65.00 minimum contribution per person

For contributions of $75.00 and up you will receive the 2-disc CD, Franz Liszt: Visionary, featuring past competition winners.

Please RSVP by November 6 to:
nancy.roldan@gmail.com

Please send your check, payable to ALSBWC, to:
ALSBWC, c/o Nancy Roldán, President
P. O. Box 1707
Owings Mills, MD 21117

Or, you may pay at the door.

This event is possible thanks to the generosity of Leslie Hyde and Sasha Katsnelson
Amalfi Coast Music Festival Directors

Mary Lauren De Simone
Thomas Mastroianni's daughter

Concetta Mastroianni
Thomas Mastroianni's sister and additional contributions by José Cueto and Ernest Ragogini

October 21–25, 2015

Liszt-Garrison Festival and International Competition www.lisztgarrisoncompetition.org

3:30 PM Welcome

Gorgonzola Stuffed Fruit and Mushrooms
Olive Fiesta
Caponata

4:15 PM Music

Selections for violin & piano performed by

Joanna Kaczorowska & Pablo Lavandera

First Prize, Collaborative Artists, 2009 Liszt-Garrison Competition

5:00 PM Dinner

Pasta con Sarde (Palermo style)*
Chicken Cacciatore
Ricotta Stuffed Eggplant
Sicilian Wedding Cake
White and Red Sicilian Wines

Pasta con Sarde is a traditional Sicilian pasta that I learned when I was a teenager. I sauté sardines, anchovies, and garlic in olive oil, adding heaps of finocchio, to make a meatless sauce for perciatelli pasta. It also contains black currants and pinoli nuts and a sprinkling of toasted Italian bread crumbs. Tom Mastroianni*