

MY FRIEND FRANZ LISZT: A LECTURE AND RECITAL

*Music is the heart of life.
Without it, there is no possible good and with it everything is beautiful.*

~Franz Liszt~

Judith Nesleny Presents:

Franz Liszt: The Artist, His Music,
His Background

This talk will put Liszt into historical perspective of 19th century Europe. It will also cover the state of Hungarian music and the difference between folk music and gypsy musicians. Important stylistic characteristics that differentiate Liszt's music is likewise explored.

Ms. Nesleny will play excerpts from the Hungarian Rhapsodies – an important section of his compositions – and discuss particular points of interest regarding performances of his music in comparison with other composers. Additionally, she will give suggestions on how to introduce students to Liszt's music.
